

Plagiarism

1.

1. Why is “Caffeine” mentioned in the poem?
2. What does the “mix of logic and creativity” mean in the poem?
3. How does the poem portray the work of a programmer?

2.

1. What are “bugs” in the poem?
2. What does the “debugger” do?
3. When do the programmers work according to the poem?

3.

1. What does “compiling without a hitch” mean?
2. How does the developer feel when there are no errors?
3. What does the developer do when the code works?

4.

1. What do peers do when they review the code?
2. How does the developer feel about the feedback?
3. What does the developer do after receiving feedback?

5.

1. What do the people discuss in the meeting?
2. How do the people feel during the meeting?
3. What does the poem compare the meeting to?

6.

1. Where do developers work, according to the poem?
2. What tools do developers use to “conquer” their works?
3. How do developers face their work, according to the poem?